I'm not on any opposite end of any spectrum. It's not about the money because you're right money runs out, money won't be there for me at every ultrasound, money won't hold my hand in the delivery room, money won't be up with me and the baby all night. So you're right money isn't anything.

Nobody will. Cuz you feel you're ready to have a kid and you're not.

You can stop. Once you realize it does absolutely nothing and when you're ready to rip the bandaid off and be there for the people that love you and your kids, then you'll stop.

me so much yes it was something we did together and I've hurt you too but i don't know how to deal with it.

[redacted], when did I once ever say my life was perfect. Did I not say you filled a void in me that I had never felt before? Don't let this wife and kids facade fool you. I'm here for my babies. I don't kno what to say. I hurt you like no one ever. It wasn't supposed to happen this way.

Man I've never felt so disconnected from someone.

I cry alone. Every night, for the last 2 weeks

I feel disconnected from everyone. This isn't me, I've lost my sparkle and the love I've had for life

There's no one. I eat all this. There was someone in a psych ward for attempted suicide because of what I did. It's the worst feeling I've every felt.

Well I feel like you're trying to make me feel bad. Like I'm just supposed to get rid of my baby and act like it never happened. When it comes to July I'm supposed to act like I shouldn't be having a child. As soon as a woman finds out there is a little something growing inside of her she instantly falls in love, and knows this will be her whole life

I get it.

B, everything will be taken from me. You don't understand. And yes we both knew this could happen, but you said other things at the time. We both knew it couldn't happen. I can't lose my kids, man. I can't. They are the only things keeping me going. I don't give [redacted] about much else.

And women take kids from men daily in our judicial system. Then they suck them dry and leave them with nothing.

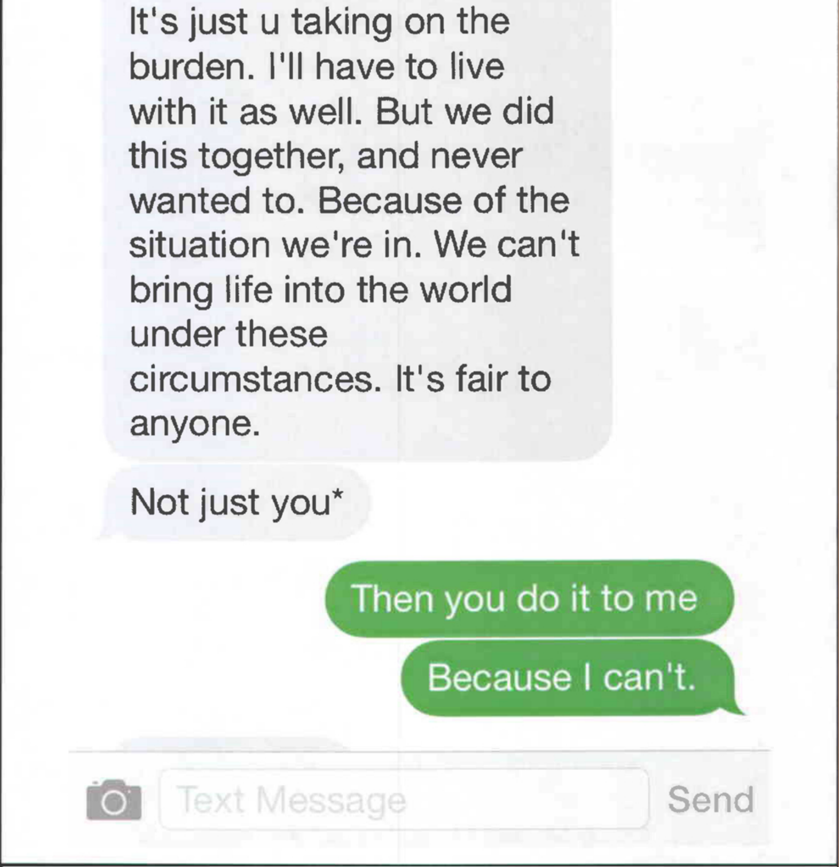
It's not easy!!! I kno that!!



It's just u taking on the burden. I'll have to live with it as well. But we did this together, and never wanted to. Because of the situation we're in. We can't bring life into the world under these circumstances. It's fair to anyone.

Not just you*

Then you do it to me

Because I can't.
