I asked the inmate that pushed the trays through the pan hold was he going to bring my tray, and he told me he was going to bring it back.

I finished cleaning the dorm, after about a half hour passed I pushed the button and asked for my tray.

The officers told me the dinner had been served. They let two new inmates into the dorm, after they finished, I asked for my tray again, and I did mention to the deputy that I did not care about going to lockup because I had not cause no disturbance, and had waited patiently on my meal.

The reason use of force deputy called me out of the dorm and told me I was in fact going to lockup. On the way to lockup the officer put his hands around my neck to throw me to the ground. I had my hands out. I never resisted. The officer checked me to almost unconscious. I never resisted. I had a bowl movement and vomited onto myself. Because I asked the deputy for my tray of food.
