

Press Release
Adriene Kae Anderson
for immediate release

In keeping with the rights set forth in both the U.S. and Texas Constitutions, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, my Client has directed me to say only, at this time:

That, the specious allegations made by the Harris County District Attorney's Office notwithstanding, my client is not guilty of any crime, and will vigorously defend these claims within the framework of the law. She fully expects to be vindicated in the trial on the merits of this charge.
