Perhaps. And in the end I expect we will take the same position here as we did in the ashby highrise and was also recommended by the Mayor's transition committee. Namely the city's role is to preserve infrastructure, ensure minimal mobility impact on neighbors and the community. And not be involved with height, color etc of the improvements.

We have already and will continue to promote a healthy dialogue between the community and the developers. I fully expect when the deal is finalized that discussion will occur.

This one has the potential to be that neighborhood's Ashby High Rise.
