in that, among other things, he: obtained illegal drugs for later distribution to his clients (including professional athletes); submitted biological specimens from his clients to Balco for testing (including sending the specimens off to outside laboratories for analysis); and obtained the laboratory analysis results of those specimens from Balco.

- 4. A federal criminal investigation ("the criminal investigation"), led by the Internal Revenue Service-Criminal Investigation Division ("IRS-CID"), commenced in the Northern District of California concerning Balco's distribution of anabolic steroids and other illegal performance-enhancing drugs and the related money laundering of proceeds from the drug distributions. The criminal investigation initially resulted in an indictment and the convictions of four defendants on federal charges, including illegal drug distribution and money laundering offenses.
- 5. One focus of the criminal investigation, among others, concerned whether Balco, Anderson, and others were engaged in illegal drug distribution and money laundering arising from distributions of illegal drugs to professional athletes and others.
- 6. As part of the criminal investigation, on or about September 3, 2003, federal search warrants, issued in the Northern District of California, were executed. Among other things, investigators obtained evidence concerning Bonds and his relationship with Anderson and Balco.
- 7. As part of the criminal investigation, several professional athletes, including but not limited to Bonds, along with other witnesses, were subpoenaed before the Federal Grand Jury to provide, among other things, testimony about their knowledge and involvement with Balco and its employees, including but not limited to Victor Conte and James Valente, as well as any relationship with Anderson.
- 8. On or about December 4, 2003, Bonds testified before the Grand Jury. Bonds received an Order of Immunity for his Grand Jury testimony, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 6003 and 28 C.F.R. § 0.175, and was informed that pursuant to that order neither his testimony nor any information directly or indirectly derived from his testimony could be used against him in any criminal case except a prosecution for perjury, false declaration, or otherwise failing to comply

- 10. The factual allegations contained in paragraphs one through nine above are incorporated herein as if set forth in full.
- 11. On or about December 4, 2003, in the Northern District of California, the defendant,

BARRY LAMAR BONDS,

having taken an oath to testify truthfully in a proceeding before a Grand Jury sitting in the Northern District of California, unlawfully, willfully, knowingly, and contrary to such oath, did make false material declarations, that is, he gave the following underlined false testimony:

- Q: I know the answer - - let me ask you this again. I know we kind of got the into this. Let me be real clear about this. Did he [Anderson] ever give you anything that you knew to be a steroid? Did he ever give a steroid?
- I don't think Greg would do anything like that to me and jeopardize our A: friendship. I just don't think he would do that.
- Q: Well, when you say you don't think he would do that, to your knowledge, I mean, did you ever take any steroids that he gave you?
- A: Not that I know of. (a)

*********

- Q: Okay. So, I got to ask, Mr. Bonds. There's this number associated on a document with your name, and corresponding to Barry B. on the other document, and it does have these two listed anabolic steroids as testing positive in connection with it. Do you follow my question?
- A: I follow where you're going, yeah.
- So, I guess I got to ask the question again, I mean, did you take steroids? And Q:

BARRY LAMAR BONDS,

having taken an oath to testify truthfully in a proceeding before a Grand Jury sitting in the Northern District of California, unlawfully, willfully, knowingly, and contrary to such oath, did make false material declarations, that is, he gave the following underlined false testimony:

- Q: Did Greg ever give you anything that required a syringe to inject yourself with?
- A: I've only had one doctor touch me. And that's my only personal doctor.

Greg, like I said, we don't get into each others' personal lives. We're friends, but I don't – we don't sit around and talk baseball, because he knows I don't want – don't come to my house talking baseball. If you want to come to my house and talk about fishing, some other stuff, we'll be good friends. You come around talking about baseball, you go on. I don't talk about his business. You know what I mean?

- Q: So no one else other than perhaps the team doctor and your personal physician has ever injected anything in to you or taken anything out?
- A: Well, there's other doctors from surgeries. I can answer that question, if you're getting technical like that. Sure, there are other people that have stuck needles in me and have drawn out - I've had a bunch of surgeries, yes.
- Q: So -
- A: So sorry.
- Q: -- the team physician, when you've had surgery, and your own personal physician. But no other individuals like Mr. Anderson or any associates of his?
- (a) A: No, no.

- Q: Let me ask the same question about Greg at this point, we'll go into this in a little bit more detail, but did you ever get anything else from Greg besides advice or tips on your weight lifting and also the vitamins and the proteins that you already referenced?
- A: This year, in 2003 - at the end of 2002, 2003 season, when I was going through my dad died of cancer, you know, and everyone knows that.
- Q: Yes. I'm sorry about that.
- A: And everyone tries to give me everything. You got companies that provide us with more junk to try than anything. And you know that as well.

I was fatigued, tired, just needed recovery, you know. And this guy says: "Try this cream, try this cream." And Greg came to the ballpark and he said, you know: "This will help you recover," and he rubbed some cream on my arm, like, some lotion-type stuff, and, like, gave me some flax seed oil, that's what he called it, called it some flax seed oil, man. It's, like: "Whatever, dude."

And I was at the ballpark, whatever, I don't care. What's lotion going to do to

But let me ask, I mean, is it possible it's actually a year before, after the 2000 - well, actually two years before, after the 2001 season? Because this first calendar is dated December 2001 with "BB" on it and its got a number of entries that I'd like to ask you

Were you getting items during that period of time from Greg?

No. Like I said, I don't recall having anything like this at all during that time of year. It was toward the end of 2000, after the World Series, you know, when my father
