

A member of WABC-TV since December 1989, he is the Senior Meteorologist for Eyewitness News. He appears on "Eyewitness News This Morning" and "Eyewitness News at Noon". He has been doing the weather on those broadcasts since their inception.

Bill Evans, an eight-time Emmy award winner for "Outstanding On-Camera Achievement in Weather Broadcasting", also broadcasts the weather on WCGH Business Talk AM 1490 Radio in Greenwich, CT. He also does the weather on radio for The ABC Radio Network and ESPN, as well as filling in on "Good Morning America" and has appeared on "Live with Regis and Kelly."

Bill is most noted for his energetic and entertaining live weather broadcasts on location all over the Tri-State area, Florida, and the Caribbean.

Bill began his broadcasting career at the age of 13 in his hometown of Meridian, Mississippi as a DJ on WDAL Radio and WTOK-TV where he performed his first weathercast. Bill is no stranger to the sound and fury of hurricanes. Growing up in Mississippi, Bill experienced first-hand the awesome power of one of the most powerful and destructive hurricanes in America's history, Hurricane Camille. Bill parlayed his interest in the causes and effects of severe weather into a career.

In 1985 Bill was awarded two prestigious honors. He received his broadcast "Seal of Approval" from The American Meteorological Society and was named "Outstanding Meteorologist" by The National Weather Service for his forecasting and reporting during Hurricane Elena. Bill came to New York in 1989 from Dallas where he was Meteorologist for WFAA-TV and radio morning show host for KHYL-95FM Radio. Prior to that he was Meteorologist for WALA-TV in Mobile, AL and was radio morning show host for WABB-97FM Radio.

He is a "New York Times" best-selling author for his novel "Category 7", a techno-thriller about a hurricane bound for New York City.

Bill is an avid fund raiser for many children's charities. He also hosts "The Bill Evans Celebrity Golf Outing" to raise money in the fight against breast cancer for Breast Cancer Help, Inc. of Long Island. He also hosts many other charity golf tournaments.

Bill and his lovely wife Dana have four wonderful and beautiful children, oldest daughter Maggie, son William, and twin daughters Julia and Sarah.
