

Concerned Hancock Condo Owners

“As concerned residents of the John Hancock Center we are very disappointed in the lack of visible security in our building. It gives us great pause for many reasons including our inability to obtain personal damage insurance caused by acts of terrorism. We are hoping the new owner of the JHC will raise the level of security on par with other world class buildings in Chicago and around the country.”