Wm Fremd HS	[REDACTED]	25-30	84-96%	[REDACTED]	05/16/08: email to Cindy from Terry - Thanks for the information, and this is just an aside, but wouldn't applying for a veterinary program be the way for her to get "direct veterinary and animal experience"? At a time we have a critical shortage of people wanting to work with large animals, why are we turning people away who want to do so? Not everyone wanting to be a veterinarian grows up on a farm – but it seems we are saying, only people who grow up on a farm need apply for a veterinary education – and there are less and less of those types every year. Again, those were all just thoughts, appreciate your help. Terry McLennand
