2.60 04/13/08: email to Mary from Dr. Marshall - Mary [REDACTED] has a total of 81 hours of transferable credit with a GPA of 2.51. He applied to Mechanical engineering which requires a cumulative GPA of 3.0 and a technical (math and science) GPA of 3.0 and usually students have closer to 60 hours of transferable credit. Mechanical is one of the most competitive engineering programs for admission. He is too far off the mark for Engineering and with 81 hours he's too far along to start in another program in hopes of transferring to Engineering. Keith TRANSFER Rep Maloney?
