TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

THIS MATTER coming on for hearing before the Honorable Debra S. Sasser, District Court Judge Presiding, upon Motion of Plaintiffs for a temporary restraining order. The Court, having reviewed Plaintiffs' Verified Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction and having heard the arguments of Plaintiffs' counsel, and it appearing to this Court that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage with no adequate remedy at law available to Plaintiffs will result to Plaintiffs and that it appears from the Verified Motion and arguments of Plaintiffs' counsel that there is probable cause to believe that Defendant is disposing of assets acquired during his marriage to Nancy Cooper and that Defendant has instructed his family on the manner in which to dispose of, remove, and convert these assets. Plaintiffs gave Defendant's counsel adequate notice of the temporary restraining order hearing.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. Plaintiffs' motion for a temporary restraining order is granted;
2. Defendant and his agents are enjoined, restrained and prohibited from concealing, liquidating, assigning, transferring, selling, or otherwise wasting or disposing of any and all of his remaining assets;
3. Defendant and his agents are enjoined, restrained and prohibited from further encumbering the assets presently owned by Defendant, including, but not limited to, the former marital residence and Defendant's 401(k);
4. Defendant and his agents are enjoined, restrained and prohibited from withdrawing, cashing out, transferring, encumbering or otherwise disposing of any assets presently owned by Defendant, including but not limited to, the former marital residence, checking and savings accounts in his or Nancy Cooper's separate or joint names, his 401(k) through Cisco, his brokerage accounts, and all other bank, stock and retirement accounts, all artwork, all jewelry and all other personal property located at the former marital residence or that were once owned by Nancy Cooper and/or Defendant;

5. Defendant and his agents are enjoined, restrained and prohibited from withdrawing any funds on an equity line, line of credit or credit card secured by one of the aforementioned assets set forth in paragraph 4 immediately above;

6. Notwithstanding the prohibition listed in the above paragraphs, Defendant or his agents may list the former marital residence for sale during the pendency of this Order; provided however, the house shall be listed at a fair market value, as determined by the listing agent. If the former marital residence sells during the pendency of this order, the net proceeds shall be held in escrow by counsel for Defendant pending further order of this Court.

7. Neither party shall be required to post a bond in connection with this Temporary Restraining Order;

8. The parties, through counsel, shall appear before the Court on November 21, 2008 at 9:00 a.m. in the Wake County Courthouse in Raleigh, North Carolina in courtroom 8B or as soon thereafter as this matter may be heard to determine whether a preliminary injunction should be entered.

This the 10th day of November, 2008, at 6:10 p.m.

THE HONORABLE DEBRA S. SASSER
