Carlie C's

HOMETOWN PROUD

January 18, 2013

PRESS RELEASE:

Carlie C's IGA is excited to announce the impending opening of our newest location on 4111 New Bern Avenue in Raleigh, site of the former Kroger Supermarket. Through diligent cooperation between our company, Kroger, and the Landlord we have paved the way to continue to provide a full service supermarket to the neighborhood. In light of the tremendous desire for a neighborhood store we will be looking to open the store on February 6th provided that we can clear hiring, training, licensing and permitting hurdles. We will be opening the location with minor improvements but will immediately begin an extensive remodeling of the location over the next several months with an official "Grand Opening" in a few months. The location will be a full service supermarket including pharmacy. We are currently taking applications for all positions either online at www.carliecs.com or on site starting on Monday, January 21st. We will continue to explore site availability in and around the Raleigh area in the future and hope to add additional locations soon.

Sincerely,
