FILED: February 9, 2012

The Charitable Solicitation Licensing Division (hereinafter "CSL") of the North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State (hereinafter "Department"), pursuant to authority granted by North Carolina General Statutes Chapter 131F, does hereby issue this Notice of Intent to Revoke the Charitable Solicitation License of Share Our Shoes. Based upon CSL's investigation and information received regarding this matter, the Charitable Solicitation Licensing Division of the North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State hereby gives notice to the licensee of the following findings:

FINDINGS

1. The Charitable Solicitation Licensing Division of the North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State is charged with charitable solicitation licensing and enforcement under

N.C.G.S. Chapter 131-F et. seq. (hereinafter referred to as “the Charitable Solicitation Act”) and Title 18, Chapter 11 of the North Carolina Administrative Code.

2. Share Our Shoes is a “charitable organization” as defined by N.C.G.S. §131 F-2(3) and is subject to the requirements of the Charitable Solicitation Act.
3. Share Our Shoes, originally known as “Shoes-4-Souls, Inc.”, registered as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to NCGS Chapter 55A on September 3, 2009. This entity subsequently changed its legal name to “Share Our Shoes” on March 4, 2010.
4. Share Our Shoes currently lists its registered agent in North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State corporation records as Jennifer Pierce.
5. Share Our Shoes obtained their initial charitable solicitation license on March 24, 2010.
6. Share Our Shoes’ currently holds a charitable solicitation license that is set to expire on May 15, 2012.
7. Share Our Shoes 2010 IRS Form 990 indicates the organization received $864,338 in contributions and revenue and incurred $817,602 in expenses in the 2010 fiscal year.
8. On September 7, 2011, CSL received an electronic mail message from Hazem Sider, the owner of Hudda Footwear in Creedmoor, North Carolina. Hudda Footwear purchases and resells used shoes. Mr. Sider alleged in this message that Jennifer Pierce retained proceeds from the sale of shoes belonging to Share Our Shoes for her personal use. CSL Investigator Jason Ricks interviewed Mr. Sider on November 8, 2011 and obtained copies of his records related to shoe transactions Ms. Pierce engaged in on behalf of Share Our Shoes.
9. On October 14, 2011, Michael Weddle sent CSL an electronic mail message concerning alleged misconduct by Jennifer Pierce related to Share Our Shoes. Mr. Weddle’s message also alleged that Jennifer Pierce retained proceeds from the sale of shoes belonging to Share Our Shoes for her personal use. Mr. Weddle further alleged that Hope Community Church of Cary donated shoes and five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) to Share Our Shoes based upon the representation that these shoes would be sent to Haiti. Mr. Weddle further alleged that Jennifer Pierce sold the shoes donated by Hope Community Church to a buyer in New York and they were not sent to Haiti.

10. Shortly thereafter, CSL also received information about a local media investigative report concerning alleged misappropriation of shoe and money contributions that Share Our Shoes had recently received from Hope Community Church, in Cary, North Carolina.
11. In order to obtain additional information concerning allegations regarding Share Our Shoes alleged misappropriation of contributions from Hope Community Church, on November 2, 2011, CSL sent a records request pursuant to NCGS §131F-23(a) to Share Our Shoes concerning the recent solicitation campaign conducted by Hope Community Church on behalf of the organization with a response deadline of December 2, 2011. More specifically, CSL requested the following information:
 - a. The amount of shoes collected by the Church; and
 - b. The current status or disposition of shoes collected by the Church; and
 - c. Verified record of the deposit of the five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) cash donation received; and
