

21st March 2024

On the 20th of March, the three-month-old baby Cauê Ramos Pinto de Oliveira, the youngest child of our sister/daughter Matilde and brother/son Diego, despite the immense and unwavering efforts of the UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Pediatric Intensive Care Unit, passed away from injuries sustained after tragically being run over at a bus stop while the family was on its way to the zoo. He was the last surviving member of Matilde and Diego's direct family, as both his parents and his two-year-old brother Joaquim succumbed to their injuries from the crash. Little Cauê was a fighter and our hero; his organs were donated and will serve to save the lives of other children.

Diego and Matilde were warm and loving parents who had a deep love for their beautiful children and enjoyed nothing more than spending time with their two little boys. They were also what one would call real 'life enhancers'—the kind of people everyone loved to be around: happy, funny, kind, and always eager to make the best of what life had to offer them. The outpouring of love and grief from all over the world, which has greatly moved us, is a testament to this.

We loved Diego, Matilde, Joaquim, and Cauê deeply and are sure the love they showed to their family and friends will serve as their legacy.

We would like to express heartfelt thanks to the following organizations:

- The UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Pediatric Intensive Care Unit for their immense dedication to Cauê
- The Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital and Trauma Center for their unwavering dedication to Matilde
- The San Francisco Police Department and the first responders
- Diego and Matilde's employers and colleagues at Apple Inc. and RSA Films for their immense help and support during this difficult time.

We also want to extend our sincere gratitude to all our family and friends, without whose help we could not have gotten through these difficult times.

At this time of mourning, we have no further information to add and ask that you kindly respect our family's privacy to grieve.

Signed, The family of Diego Cardoso de Oliveira and Matilde Ramos Pinto
