FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

All physical or digital monetary currency values that are placed in any state or federal government escrow are rightfully FDIC insured up to $250,000. The escrow will be held by a non-legal binding party, whom the federal government entrust with fore said legal agreements between two mutual parties.

The agreement can only be terminated in the ways stated below, both parties uphold the stipulations in the signed agreement and legal matter is rightfully dissolved, either one party fails to uphold his legal binding agreed upon stipulation and then fore said party loses all monetary value place in fore said escrow, if both parties fail to uphold to the fore said legal agreement, then it goes into a virtual trust held by the non-legal binding agency , that builds interest until an agreement is met.

Once funds are placed in the digital escrow , funds legally stay into the escrow until released by non-legal binding agents.
